

National Donor Sabbath:
Copy for use in your congregation's bulletins, flyers or newsletters

[Religious Organization] supports and encourages organ and tissue donation as the ultimate faith-based gift of one person to another. Illinois' new organ/tissue donor registry makes your wish to be a donor legally binding, without the need for additional consent. The new registry will help save hundreds of more lives each year. To register, visit www.donatelifellinois.org. Indiana residents can register their legally binding decisions by visiting www.donatelifelindiana.org. For more information about donation, contact Gift of Hope Organ & Tissue Donor Network at 888/307-DON8 or www.giftofhope.org.

[Name of Religion] recognizes the life-giving benefits of organ and tissue donation and encourages all members of our congregation to register in Illinois' new organ/tissue donor registry. The new registry will help save hundreds more lives each year. To register, visit www.donatelifellinois.org. Indiana residents can register their legally binding decisions by visiting www.donatelifelindiana.org. For more information about donation, contact Gift of Hope Organ & Tissue Donor Network at 888/307-DON8 or www.giftofhope.org.

To think of others at a time of grief and sorrow is truly compassionate and selfless. Please register today to give the gift of life through organ and tissue donation. [Name of Religion] supports this gift in the spirit of love and generosity. Illinois' new organ/tissue donor registry makes your wish to be an organ and tissue donor legally binding, without the need for additional consent. The new registry will help save hundreds more lives each year. To register, visit www.donatelifellinois.org. Indiana residents can register their legally binding decisions by visiting www.donatelifelindiana.org. For more information about donation, contact Gift of Hope Organ & Tissue Donor Network at 888/307-DON8 or www.giftofhope.org.

Nearly 100,000 people nationwide are waiting for lifesaving organ transplants, and thousands are in the need of life-enhancing tissue transplants. For many, the chance to live a full life won't come unless all of us consider how we can help give life after death. Register in Illinois' new organ/tissue donor registry and make your decision to be an organ and tissue donor legally binding, without the need for additional consent. The new registry will help save hundreds more lives each year. To register, visit www.donatelifellinois.org. Indiana residents can register their legally binding decisions by visiting www.donatelifelindiana.org. For more information about donation, contact Gift of Hope Organ & Tissue Donor Network at 888/307-DON8 or www.giftofhope.org.
