Our presenters

Kelly Patrick, MS, CTBS
Recovery Partner Director
Community Tissue Services

As Recovery Partner Director for Community Tissue Services in Dayton, Ohio, Kelly Patrick oversees the tissue bank's relationships with the donor tissue recovery organizations with which it works. Kelly has worked in tissue banking for 20 years. She is a certified tissue banking specialist and holds a master's degree in regulatory science. She serves on the Quality Council and the Certification Committee for the American Association of Tissue Banks.

Jeff Wiggins
Senior Manager
Training and Education, Donor Services
Artivion

Jeff Wiggins is a Certified Tissue Bank Specialist (CTBS) through the American Association of Tissue Banks (AATB) and holds a bachelor's degree in biology from Mercer University. In his 34 years at Artivion, formerly Cryolife, Jeff has been a tissue processor, organ and tissue recovery trainer and donor services manager. He currently oversees a division of the donor services training and education department.

Chasity Pla, CTBS, FDE
Funeral Director Liaison
Gift of Hope Organ &
Tissue Donor Network

Chasity Pla is a licensed funeral director and embalmer, and part of Gift of Hope's Partner Relations team. For more than 10 years, she has applied her professional training to guide Gift of Hope's collaboration with funeral service professionals.

Funeral service professionals will learn:

- How the recovery of donated tissue has evolved with surgical advances
- Why specific tissues are recovered
- How donated tissue can be transformed for use in healing and life-saving surgery
